Mexican Diplomat to Retire from the Field and Practice Law at Home.

Manuel Calero, Mexican Ambassador to the United States, will leave Washinston next week for Mexico City. It was stated at the Embassy yearerday that he will not return to the United States, but will retire from the Phylomatic Service and practice law. The Embassy will be placed in charge of Senor Laxutrain, the Mexican Minister of Foreign Affairs, who is now in New York, but it is not thought he will be the new Archassador. Ambassador Calero, yesterday denied reports that insurrection had captured the reports that insurrectos had onpured the city of Casas Grandes. He stated that advices from Mexico had been received at the Embassy declaring the reports without foundation in fact.
